

The history of the Charis Alliance

1.

Our church is part of a vibrant global movement. Ever wonder how it all began?

2.

By the early 1700's, churches across Europe were embroiled in conflict. Many had lost sight of the reason Jesus formed His church – to deliver the message of grace and hope.

3.

However, in one corner of Germany, a small group of men and women recommitted to reading their Bibles and obeying its message. In 1708, they took the bold step of forming a new church, based upon the example they saw in the New Testament.

4.

This growing church drew the ire of the local rulers. To avoid persecution, they emigrated to the Americas and, over time, formed hundreds of churches.

5.

Yet something was missing. Among the final words of Jesus is the command 'to make disciples of all nations.' Obedying Jesus means taking his message to others by crossing barriers of geography, language and culture.

6.

For us, this began in 1900. Slowly at first, then with more speed, we sent workers to many distant places. Before long, these new churches were also sending out workers.

The history of the Charis Alliance

7.

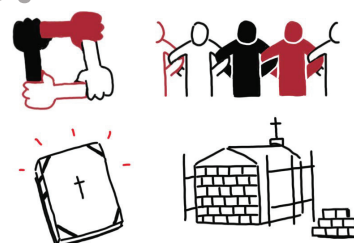

Recently, we named our movement: The Charis Alliance. Charis means 'grace' in Greek. Above all, we want to be witnesses to the grace of God, poured out upon the world through His Son, Jesus Christ.

8.

While we all share the same family history and core beliefs, we encourage our churches to adopt methods appropriate to the culture where God places them. So, what do we have in common?

9.

We share a commitment to Biblical Truth. The Bible determines what we believe and guides what we do.

We share a commitment to Biblical Relationships.

We respect and support one another. We work hard to obey Jesus' command to 'love one another as I have loved you.'

10.

Yes, our church is excited to belong to a family of churches that shares a common history, beliefs and values ... a family of churches called the Charis Alliance.

11.

Today, we join churches around the globe in celebrating what God has done. And we invite both your prayers and financial support to bless the Charis Alliance. May our generosity today serve as fuel for our growing movement!

We share a commitment to Biblical Mission.

We are committed to planting new churches, training new leaders, and doing good in our communities.
